MESSAGE FROM

Julia K. Hearthway

SECRETARY

The Workers' Compensation Act was enacted in 1915 to protect workers and outline the responsibilities of stakeholders in Pennsylvania's workers' compensation system. Today, nearly 100 years later, the Department of Labor & Industry's Bureau of Workers' Compensation and Office of Adjudication carry out the provisions of the act with superior service, innovation and excellence. This report expands on our accomplishments, as well as goals for further improvement.

A primary aim of the workers' compensation system is to reduce workplace injuries. In this effort, in 2011, more than 9,600 employers developed state-certified workplace safety committees that represent 1.3 million employees in Pennsylvania, nearly one quarter of all Pennsylvania employees. The cumulative number of approved workplace safety committee certification renewals totaled 51,447.

During 2011, 83,144 lost-time work injury and illness cases were reported to the Bureau of Workers' Compensation, a 2.8 percent decrease from 2010. The work injury and illness rate (the number of lost-time work injuries per 1,000 workers) was 14.6 in 2011, down from 15.2 in 2010.

These figures illustrate the Bureau of Workers' Compensation's commitment to ensuring workplace safety. Our efforts benefit employers and employees through cost savings and safer workplaces. We look forward to helping Pennsylvania companies be safer workplaces by establishing many more workplace safety committees in the coming years.

We continue to improve workplace safety and keep costs low for employers and businesses, which means more money can be reinvested in Pennsylvania's workforce. As our economy recovers, our future depends on how well we protect workers' health, safety and ability to earn.

Sincerely,

Julia K. Hearthway

MESSAGE FROM

Elizabeth Crum

DEPUTY SECRETARY FOR COMPENSATION AND INSURANCE

In 2011, the Pennsylvania Bureau of Workers' Compensation, the Workers' Compensation Office of Adjudication and the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board saw a year of tremendous productivity and superior customer service. The 2011 annual report outlines the achievements workers' compensation has accomplished throughout the year.

The Workers' Compensation Office of Adjudication continued to expand availability of alternate dispute resolution services by increasing the number of judges providing mediation services and increasing the number of judges trained in alternative dispute resolution.

The total number of mediation sessions held in 2011 increased by 23 percent over the 2010 total. This is up 4 percent from the 19 percent increase in 2010 over 2009.

The statewide average time it takes to decide cases was below seven months for the third consecutive year. At 6.5 months, it is down from 6.9 months in 2010, from 6.8 months in 2009, and has decreased every other year since 2002, down from 11.8 months in 1998.

I congratulate and thank everyone who has helped workers' compensation to provide excellent customer service. Workers' compensation remains committed in our efforts to improve safety, reduce costs and ensure an efficient and fair system in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth (rum

A Brief History of Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Law

In 1915, the Pennsylvania Legislature enacted the Pennsylvania Workmen's (Workers') Compensation Act (act). The statute charges the Department of Labor & Industry (department) and the Bureau of Workers' Compensation (bureau) with carrying out the administrative and appeal obligations defined in the act and specifies compensation for employees who are injured as a result of employment without regard to fault. Amendments eventually merged the compensation for injuries and occupational diseases into this act. The statute defines the benefits available to Pennsylvania workers, the conditions under which benefits are available and the procedures for obtaining them.

The workers' compensation system protects employees and employers. Employees receive medical treatment and are compensated for lost wages associated with work-related injuries and disease, and employers provide for the cost of such coverage while being protected from direct lawsuits by employees.

Workers' compensation coverage is mandatory for most employers under Pennsylvania law. Employers who do not have workers' compensation coverage may be subject to lawsuits by employees and to criminal prosecution by the commonwealth.

Some employers are exempted from workers' compensation coverage. Exemptions include: people covered under other workers' compensation acts, such as railroad workers, longshoremen and federal employees; domestic servants (coverage is optional); agricultural workers who work fewer than 30 days or earn less than $1,200 in a calendar year from one employer; and employees who have requested, and been granted, exemption due to religious beliefs or their executive status in certain corporations.

In Pennsylvania, employers can obtain workers' compensation insurance through a licensed insurance carrier or the State Workers' Insurance Fund. In addition, employers can apply to the bureau to seek approval to self-insure their liability. Self-insurance is granted by the bureau based on criteria established by the act and the department.

Employees are covered for the entire period of their employment. Therefore, coverage begins the first day on the job. Injuries or diseases caused or aggravated by employment are covered under workers' compensation, regardless of the employee's previous physical condition.

Mission Statement

The Pennsylvania workers' compensation program was established to reduce injuries and provide lost wages and medical benefits to Pennsylvania employees who become ill or injured through the course of their employment so they can heal and return to the workforce.

The bureau and the Office of Adjudication are responsible for carrying out the provisions of the act and related legislation, and for fulfilling the overall purpose of Pennsylvania's workers' compensation system. In carrying out the act's requirements, the bureau and Office of Adjudication have several primary roles:

- Obtain, review and maintain records on certain loss-time work injuries and benefit documents.
- Certify individual self-insured employers and self-insured employer pools, and determine their monetary security requirements.
- Resolve areas of contention among the participants in the workers' compensation system.
- Enforce the act's provisions.
- Promote the health and safety of employees in accordance with the 1993 and 1996 amendments to the act.
- Enforce the act's occupational disease provisions.

Basic Benefits

Replacement of Lost Wages

A portion of the worker's salary – up to a maximum amount provided by law – is paid for the time lost from work as a result of a work-related disability, if the disability lasts longer than seven calendar days. These payments are tax free. The maximum allowable weekly benefit for calendar year 2011 was $858. Partial disability benefits consisting of two-thirds of the gross difference in wage loss for up to 500 weeks are paid to employees who suffer a partial disability resulting from a work-related injury or disease. Benefits can possibly be subject to other reductions or offsets.

Payment of Medical Expenses

Reasonable and necessary work-related medical expenses are paid regardless of the duration of required treatment and apply even though the employee may not have lost time from work.

Specific Loss Benefits

Benefits are payable if a work-related injury results in loss of vision, hearing and/or the use of limbs (including fingers and toes). Specific loss benefits are paid without regard to the amount of time lost from work. A separate healing period is also defined for each loss.

Disfigurement Benefits

Benefits are payable if there is a serious, permanent disfigurement of the head, face or neck.

Death Benefits

The employee's dependents may claim benefits if a work-related injury or disease results in the employee's death. Also, reasonable burial expenses are payable to a maximum amount set by law.

Subsequent Injuries

Additional compensation may be available through the Subsequent Injury Fund. This fund is administered by the commonwealth and pays workers who have had a specific loss of use for a hand, arm, foot, leg or eye and who incur total disability caused by loss of use of another hand, arm, foot, leg or eye. The commonwealth makes payments for the duration of the workers' total disability.

The Flow of a Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Claim

The Flow of a Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Claim (Litigated)

Employers are required to post form LIBC-500, Remember: It is Important to Tell Your Employer About Your Injury, to inform employees of the name, address and phone number of their workers' compensation insurance company, their third-party administrator or internal workers' compensation contact person.

An employee injury is to be reported to the employer within 21 days; if not reported within 120 days from the date of injury or having knowledge of a work-related disease, no compensation is allowed (except for cases involving progressive diseases).

Employers are required to immediately report all employee injuries to their insurer or, if self-insured, to report them to the person responsible for management of the employer's workers' compensation program. Employers are also required to file a First Report of Injury (formerly the Employer's Report of Occupational Injury or Disease) with the Bureau of Workers' Compensation within 48 hours for every injury resulting in death, and within seven days for all other injuries that result in disability lasting more than a day, shift or turn of work. This document must be submitted electronically.

Within 21 days from the date the employee provides notification of an injury, the employer/carrier accepts liability for the injury and issues a Notice of Workers' Compensation Payable, a Notice of Temporary Compensation Payable or an Agreement for Compensation. See the Flow of a Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Claim on page 6 for more detailed information.

Within 21 days from the date the employee provides notification of an injury, the employer/carrier denies liability and issues a Notice of Workers' Compensation Denial to the employee.

Generally, the employee has three years from the date of injury to file a Claim Petition (LIBC-362). The law also provides that injured workers may reopen their claim within three years from the last date an indemnity payment was made on a claim. (Mere paying of medical benefits would not be the same as reopening the claim.)

Workers' compensation petitions are normally assigned to a workers' compensation judge according to the county in which the employee lives.

Once assigned, all parties involved in the case are notified in writing as to the date, time and place of hearing.

A workers' compensation judge hears evidence presented by both the defendant (employer/insurer) and claimant at one or more hearings that may be extended by the need to obtain medical evidence and hear other witnesses.

The workers' compensation judge will schedule the case for mediation, unless the judge concludes it would be futile. If this mediation does not take place or lead to settlement, the parties may at any time ask for an informal conference or settlement conference with a workers' compensation judge.

A written decision is circulated to involved parties after a case is closed (all evidence has been submitted and the judge has everything necessary to render a decision). No further action is taken.

Either party has 20 days from the date the workers' compensation judge's decision is circulated to all parties to file an appeal with the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board.

Either party has 30 days from the date of publication of the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board's opinion to file an appeal with the Commonwealth Court.

Either party has 30 days from the date of publication of the Commonwealth Court's decision to file a Petition for Allowance of an Appeal with the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

The administration of the Pennsylvania workers' compensation system is funded by a spending authorization appropriated by the state legislature and approved by the governor. The money for these expenditures comes from five special funds established through assessments:

The Workers' Compensation Administration Fund

Purpose: Provides funding for the administrative operations of the bureau, the Workers' Compensation Office of Adjudication and the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board.

Assessment Amount: For fiscal year 2010-11, the amount assessed totaled $57,521,674 and represented 2.02 percent of compensation paid in calendar year 2009.

The Supersedeas Fund

Purpose: To provide relief to employers/insurers for payments made during litigation of claims contesting whether compensation is payable. When an employer/insurer files a petition for termination, modification or suspension of benefits, a Supersedeas hearing can also be requested. At this hearing, the workers' compensation judge can deny the request or grant a temporary order of partial or total suspension of benefits. If the request is denied, but the final decision of the judge is that compensation was not payable, the employer/insurer may apply to be reimbursed from the Supersedeas Fund for "overpayments" made following the initial denial.

Assessment Amount: For fiscal year 2010-11, the amount assessed was $15,019,638 and represented 0.50 percent of compensation paid in calendar year 2009.

The Subsequent Injury Fund

Purpose: To compensate workers who experience certain losses (for example: arm, hand, leg, foot, eye) subsequent to a prior loss.

Assessment Amount: The total amount of the fund equals the amount expended from the fund in the preceding year. Law requires the fund to have a minimum funding of $100,000. For the 2010-11 fiscal year, the amount assessed totaled $203,221 and represented 0.007 percent of compensation paid in calendar year 2009.

The Self-Insurance Guaranty Fund

Purpose: To make payments to any eligible claimant or dependent upon the default of the self-insurer liable to pay compensation or associated costs due under the Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Act and the Pennsylvania Occupational Disease Act. This fund is used when the securities posted by defaulting companies are exhausted, but can only be used for injuries occurring after the 1993 amendments. With the passage of Act 53 of 2000, the General Assembly created a restricted account within the Guaranty Fund called the Prefund Account. The purpose of the Prefund Account is to provide for the continuation of benefits to workers who were injured prior to 1993 and whose self-insured employers have gone bankrupt. The financing of the Prefund Account is a budget item of the Administration Fund.

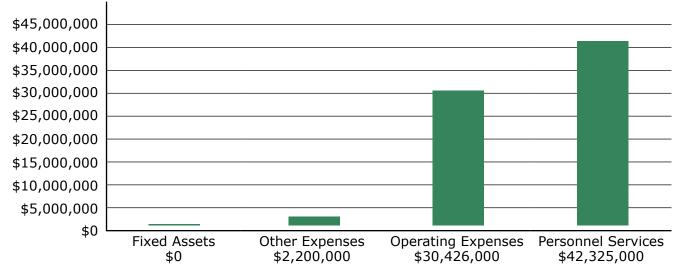

Assessment Determination/Amount: For new self-insurers starting self-insurance after Oct. 30, 1993, the assessment is 0.5 percent of their modified premium for the 12 months immediately preceding the start of self-insurance. Existing and former self-insurers with runoff claims may be assessed on an as-needed basis at the rate of up to 1 percent of compensation paid annually. For fiscal year 2010-11, the amount assessed was $62,824 and represented 0.5 percent of the annual modified premium of employers starting self-insurance.

Uninsured Employers Guaranty Fund

Purpose: To extend workers' compensation benefits to injured workers whose employers fail to insure, or be approved to self-insure, their liability for work-related injuries. Initial money for the fund was transferred from the Administration Fund, with subsequent funding made from assessments to insurers and self-insured employers.

Assessment Amount: Assessments have been made annually since 2007. This fund assessed $2,855,724 during 2010-11.

Workers' Compensation Automation and Integration System

The Pennsylvania Department of Labor & Industry is developing an online Workers' Compensation Automation and Integration System, or WCAIS, that will improve workers' compensation business processes by replacing the existing computer system with a modern one that better meets staff and stakeholder needs.

WCAIS is a Web-based system that will enable electronic communication, online filing, document management and around-the-clock access to information. Release 1 included services for the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board and Bureau of Workers' Compensation Helpline, and went live in the fall of 2012. Release 2, scheduled for implementation in the fall of 2013, will bring the Bureau of Workers' Compensation and the Workers' Compensation Office of Adjudication on board.

During the course of this project, information about the WCAIS project, electronic data interchange, or EDI, and frequently asked questions will be available on the department's website. For information, visit www.dli.state.pa.us/wcais.

Your ideas and feedback are crucial to developing a successful tool — one that's helpful for you and for our customers. You are encouraged to share any thoughts, questions or concerns as we move forward, directly to the project resource account at RA-LI-PA-WCAIS-UP@state.pa.us.

The Workers' Compensation Rules Committee

In 2011, the committee met on several occasions to discuss revisions to the Special Rules of Administrative Practice and Procedure Before the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board and Workers' Compensation Judges (chapters 113 and 131). During that time, the committee considered revision to the rules pertaining to, among other things, service, subpoenas, attorney fees and the interplay between the rules and electronic filing. The committee also devoted a substantial amount of time discussing rules for the handling of claims involving the Uninsured Employers Guaranty Fund, or UEGF. The committee felt that, because of the unique nature of UEGF claims, it would be advisable to adopt specific rules for the handling of these claims.

The Rules Committee hopes to be in a position to publish its proposed changes for review and comment by the various stakeholders before submitting them for final approval. The committee is optimistic that final approval of the proposed revisions can be accomplished by the beginning of 2013.

The committee is comprised of 18 members made up of the chair of the Senate Labor & Industry Committee, the chair of the House Labor Relations Committee (renamed House Labor & Industry Committee), the director of the Office of Adjudication, the bureau's deputy chief counsel, the deputy secretary for compensation & insurance, two Workers' Compensation Appeal Board representatives, four workers' compensation judges, and eight attorneys representing both employers and employees. The Workers' Compensation Rules Committee's purpose is to improve the administration of workers' compensation proceedings.

In 2011, Commissioner McDermott resigned her seat on the committee, and was replaced by Chairman Frioni. Director of the Office of Adjudication, MaryKay Rauenzahn, also resigned her seat from the committee. That seat remains open pending the appointment of a newdirector. The committee wishes to thank both Commissioner McDermott and former Director Rauenzahn for their valuable contributions to the committee.

Any interested party who wishes, may submit a suggestion or recommendation for consideration by the committee. These suggestions or recommendations should be submitted to John W. McTiernan, esquire, chair of the committee. McTiernan can be reached at 800-222-8816 or by email at jmctiernan@cbmclaw.com.

Workers' Compensation Advisory Council

The Workers' Compensation Advisory Council was created under Section 447 of the Workers' Compensation Act. The council is composed of eight members, and the secretary of Labor & Industry is the ex officio member. Members are appointed as follows: one employee and employer representative by the president pro tempore of the Senate, one employee and employer representative by the speaker of the House of Representatives, one employee and employer representative by the minority leader of the Senate and one employee and employer representative by the minority leader of the House of Representatives. Members serve a term of two years or until their successors have been appointed.

Workers' Compensation Updates

The council reviews requests for workers' compensation funding by the department and any assessments against employers or insurers related thereto, makes recommendations regarding certification of utilization review organizations and preferred provider organizations, reviews proposed legislation and regulations and reviews the annual medical accessibility study. The findings are reported to the governor, the department secretary and the legislature.

Two co-chairs, representing labor and management, and the rest of the council hold public meetings to discuss various issues of the department, bureau and legislature.

Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania Inc.

Hope, opportunity and scholarships for kids of injured workers

The hardships created by the death or serious disability of a parent often create financial challenges, making it difficult for deserving young people to pursue their educational dreams. To meet this need, Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania Inc. provides scholarships for college and vocational education to children of Pennsylvania workers who have been killed or seriously injured in a work-related accident resulting in financial need.

Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania awarded 46 scholarships totaling $107,500 for the 2011-2012 academic year. These scholarships were made possible due to the generous contributions made by scholar sponsors, corporate and community partners, kids' advisors and individual and organization donors. We are extremely grateful to those who help us help students.

Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania raises scholarship funds through various events throughout the year. In 2011, Kids' Chance held its 6th annual golf outing and recognition dinner at the Hershey Country Club. This event not only raised needed funds for scholarships, but also provided us with the opportunity to recognize our generous donors. Scholarship recipients joined us for the evening and shared their experiences on how Kids' Chance has affected their lives. Kids' Chance hosted its annual 5/10k fun run/ walk events in October 2011 in Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. Through the scholarship program, Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania is making a significant difference in the lives of all children affected by a workplace injury by helping them pursue and achieve their educational goals.

One student shares, "Your gift not only financially assists me, but honestly helps make my dreams come true. To this I want to offer my deepest thanks. I cannot put into words how grateful I am, but I want you to know that you have made a significant impact on my life and every part of my future."

For more information about Kids' Chance of Pennsylvania, visit www.kidschanceofpa.org.

21-Day Compliance

The Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Act, Section 406.1(a)(c), requires insurers and selfinsured employers to either make a first payment or deny a claim no later than 21 days after the employer has notice or knowledge of the claimant's disability. Additionally, the rules and regulations require a form to accept or deny a claim be sent to the claimant, or the claimant's dependent, and the bureau no later than 21 days after the same.

Since 1999, the bureau has been monitoring the 21-day compliance rate of insurers and self-insured employers. The bureau's formula for calculating 21-day compliance is to compare the file date of the Notice of Compensation Payable, Agreement for Compensation, Denial or Temporary Notice of Compensation Payable against the Employer Notified Date or Date Disability Began from the First Report of Injury, using the later of the two dates (to account for delayed disability situations). The bureau then selects one random quarter per year, as a sampling, to complete this comparison and determine an insurer/self-insured employer's compliance rating.

The 2011 report was drawn from the reporting period July 1, 2011 – September 30, 2011. It identified each insurer and self-insured employer by name, bureau code, number of claims filed in the reporting period and the percentage of compliance. The statewide industry average for the period was 72 percent.

Total Disability Weekly Workers' Compensation Rates

The following table illustrates the weekly workers' compensation rates used to calculate benefits payable to an injured employee.

The compensation rate is 66.66 percent of the employee's average weekly wage. If 66.66 percent of the employee's average weekly wage is greater than the maximum, the rate of compensation payable is equal to the maximum. If the benefit calculated is less than 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage, then the compensation rate shall be the lower of 50 percent of the statewide average weekly wage or 90 percent of the employee's average weekly wage. There is no absolute minimum.

The maximum compensation rate payable is calculated annually and is effective Jan. 1 of each year. The calculation of the average weekly wage is defined by the act. Corresponding figures for years prior to 2002 are maintained by the bureau. For partial disability, other calculations and definitions apply.

Director's Office Compliance Section

John Strawser

Primary Functions

Ensure compliance with the Workers' Compensation Act, regulations enacted pursuant to the act and orders issued by workers' compensation judges. These functions are accomplished through:

Educating employers regarding the requirement to insure their workers' compensation liability.

Investigating reports of employers' alleged failure to insure their liability and prosecuting cases of noncompliance in accordance with the criminal provisions provided by the act.

Referring allegations of employee fraud to the appropriate insurance carrier and prosecuting authority and allegations of employer, insurer or medical provider fraud to the proper prosecuting authority.

Reviewing all work-related injuries suffered by minors to determine if potential child labor law violations existed, referring said violations to the Bureau of Labor Law Compliance for determination and collection of any additional compensation due to injured minors. Notifying dependents of their survivor rights under the act when work-related fatalities occur.

Reviewing and investigating allegations of insurer, self-insurer or third-party administrator violations of the act to determine if further action is warranted.

Processing statutorily permissible exceptions, exemptions and elections for inclusion under the act.

2011 Accomplishments

Mailed the Employer Information pamphlet to 21,828 new or modified businesses to better educate employers about their workers' compensation responsibilities, along with certificates of insurance to secure information assuring their compliance; 10,953 businesses failed to respond, resulting in a second mailing.

Instituted 2,276 new investigations of potential employer failure to insure workers' compensation liability and referred 34 cases to the bureau's Legal Division for prosecution.

Referred 5 complaints of employee fraud to the proper insurance carrier for investigation.

Processed 1,668 corporate executive officer exceptions and 1,262 religious exemptions for exclusion under the act as well as 2,538 domestic elections for inclusion under the act.

Investigated 330 potential child labor law violations that could result in the collection of a 50 percent additional compensation penalty.

Notified 535 insurers of their requirement to pay a fee review determination that has not been appealed.

Assisted 35 walk-in visitors with their workers' compensation questions and issues.

Responded to more than 1,700 written workers' compensation inquiries received from the workers' compensation community.

Developed, planned and coordinated the June 2011 bureau conference. Approximately 1,373 employers, insurers, health care providers, attorneys and others from the workers' compensation community attended the two-day event, which offered sessions on subjects including the popular "As the Claim Turns," basics on workers' compensation, the interplay between workers' compensation and other programs and litigation issues.

Monitored individual insurers'/self-insurered employers' 21-day compliance rates and published a 21-day compliance report card whose figures were drawn from the reporting period Oct. 1, 2010, through Dec. 31, 2010. The report, which was published alphabetically for comparison purposes on our website, listed a statewide industry average of 72 percent. Training was made available on the bureau's calculation to insurers, self-insured employers, claims organizations and third-party administrators to assist in raising their compliance rates.

Health and Safety Division

Scott Weiant

Primary Functions

Evaluate employer applications to determine certification of employer workplace safety committees to determine eligibility for workers' compensation insurance premium discounts as allowed under Article X of the act. Provide assistance and guidance to employers in establishing safety committees, interpreting requirements for certification and correcting application deficiencies prior to submission.

Provide safety committee certification renewal forms for certified employers and evaluate submitted forms to determine eligibility for continuing premium discounts.

Review annual reports of accident and illness prevention services and programs from Pennsylvania licensed workers' compensation carriers, self-insured employers and group selfinsurance funds. Formulate recommendations of program or service adequacy for consideration in continuance of licensure or self-insurance status.

Determine the necessity for, and conduct, onsite audits of accident- and illness- prevention services and programs and certified safety committees. Configure and monitor deficiencycorrection programs as necessary to resolve program or service inadequacies.

Develop and disseminate health and safetyrelated information to members of the regulated community and the general public concerning: workplace safety committee certification/ recertification procedures and requirements; mandatory accident and illness prevention program and service elements; safety-related training; and annual reporting requirements.

Administer the process to review credentials in the health and safety field for recognition by the department as acceptable qualifications for accident and illness prevention service providers. Review individual qualifications for acceptability as recognized safety committee instructors.

Manage the process to nominate, select and recommend employers for the Governor's Award for Safety Excellence.

Provide Pennsylvania employers with coordinated safety and health training resources, through easy access and affordability. Services provided by Pennsylvania Training for Health and Safety, or PATHS, will enable participants in the workers' compensation system to achieve greater efficiencies in the implementation of their workers' compensation cost-containment efforts by creating a safe, accident-free workplace.

2011 Accomplishments

Granted initial certification to a cumulative total of 9,631 workplace safety committees covering more than 1,314,309 employees as of December 2011. The cumulative number of approved workplace safety committee certification renewals totaled 51,447.

Received and processed a total of 628 workplace safety committee initial applications and 6,194 workplace safety committee renewal applications.

Continued to update email databases for various client groups to provide an electronic means of communicating with the workers' compensation safety clients.

Released all necessary self-insured, group fund and insurer-required filing reports within required time frames.

Evaluated the acceptability of accident and illness prevention programs and services of 1,436 insurers and self-insured employers through annual required reports.

Conducted 227 on-site audits of licensed workers' compensation insurer and self-insured employer accident and illness prevention programs and services and certified workplace safety committees.

Participated in the process to select and award the Governor's Award for Safety Excellence to seven Pennsylvania companies, which included conducting on-site visits and review of 80 award applications.

Completed the framework, design and web documents for the Pennsylvania Training for Health and Safety, or PATHS, resource. PATHS is a training resource consisting of on-site safety and health training, Web-based safety training applications including webinars, PowerPoint presentations, sample safety programs, safety talk materials, posters and more. The PATHS website will include a schedule of health and safety-related training and information available to all Pennsylvania stakeholders. The knowledgeable and experienced trainers will be available to provide training and information sessions upon request to employers, employees and stakeholder groups.

Conducted a cumulative total of 2,436 on-site audits of accident and illness prevention programs and services of self-insured employers and licensed workers' compensation insurers and employers with state-certified workplace safety committees.

Division personnel participated in health and safety training and information sessions for more than 2,818 representatives of employers, insurers and self-insured employers.

Health Care Services Review Division

Debra Novakovich

Primary Functions

Administer the fee review process for health care providers who are disputing the timeliness or amount of payment received for medical services provided to injured Pennsylvania workers.

Manage and monitor chargemaster fee schedule data. Under amendments to the act in 1993, medical reimbursement was capped based on 1994 Medicare rates that are adjusted annually.

Authorize utilization review organizations, or UROs, to review the reasonableness and necessity of medical treatment when requested by the employer/insurer or injured worker. The division also trains, audits and monitors UROs for compliance with regulatory requirements.

Promulgate a list of physicians qualified to perform impairment rating examinations, or IREs, and designate initial IRE physician when requested by employers/self-insured employers.

Provide certification of coordinated care organizations.

Act as a liaison to independent consultants performing medical access studies.

Provide education and training to employers, insurers and health care providers as requested.

Act as a resource for all involved parties.

2011 Accomplishments

Issued 35,799 fee review decisions and determinations.

Continued to update the courtesy copy of the fee schedule quarterly on the department's website.

Ensured timely and accurate quarterly updates for insurers and self-insured employers.

Added Out Patient End-Stage Renal Dialysis (Table G) to the fee schedule to ensure proper reimbursement for end-stage renal dialysis providers per the fee schedule.

Provided specialized training for health care providers to assist in their understanding of the workers' compensation billing and payment process as well as the fee review process. This year's training was offered via WebEx and 169 representatives from the provider community participated.

Provided specialized training on the appropriate and optimal application of the workers' compensation fee schedule via WebEx to insurers and repricers. A total of 95 companies participated from across the country.

Received, reviewed and approved six URO/PRO reauthorization applications.

Received 4,529 utilization/peer review determinations and reviewer reports.

Processed 5,887 utilization/peer review determinations and reviewer reports.

Received and reviewed 13 URO/PRO reauthorization applications.

Received and reviewed two new URO/PRO authorization applications.

Conducted biannual URO/PRO meetings as necessary.

Received and processed 3,128 IRE requests for designation.

Conducted 24 URO/PRO on-site audits and evaluations.

Received and processed 3,083 IRE requests for designation, of which 267 were redesignated.

Maintained a list of 88 IRE physicians in 198 geographic locations who may be designated to perform impairment rating evaluations under the new Sixth Edition of the AMA Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment. This list is also available on the department's website and includes the physicians' specialties. The list also includes 13 physicians who accept designations out of state.

Received and reviewed the 2010 medical access study. This year's study indicates 82.5 percent of respondents expressed overall satisfaction with the medical care received. It also indicates that injured workers with provider panel lists have a high satisfaction level, return to work earlier (73.4 vs. 54.0 days) and continue to treat with the panel providers after the initial 90 days. The education of employers and injured workers is still needed. The study also continues to report that delayed and improperly-reduced payments continue to be a source of concern for health care providers. However, the 2010 responses indicate some improvement, particularly with regard to the timelines of payment.

Fee review information packets were provided to affected and interested parties via email and USPS.

Eliminated the fee review backlog of pending files.

Maintained the resource account for easier email access to the bureau for questions regarding fee review and utilization review.

Continued to offer the process of fee review investigation with the Compliance Division for providers who have received a positive response to fee review and have not received reimbursement 30 days after the determination has been received.

Self-Insurance Division

George Knehr

Primary Functions

Process and decide applications of individual employers for self-insurance status under Section 305 of the Workers' Compensation Act and Section 305 of the Pennsylvania Occupational Disease Act; set conditions for self-insurance and monitor self-insured employers' compliance with these conditions. As of Dec. 31, 2011, there were 735 employers authorized to self-insure their liability.

Process and decide applications of groups of employers to operate as group self-insurance funds under Article VIII of the act; regulate and monitor the financial conditions of the group funds, including the setting of rates, the maintenance of surplus and the distribution of dividends to members. As of Dec. 31, 2011, 18 group self-insurance funds were operating covering 826 employers in the commonwealth.

Collect and tabulate information needed to issue assessments against insurers and self-insured employers to maintain special funds established under the act.

Monitor the claims payments and outstanding liabilities of former self-insurers to ensure that they maintain adequate security or assets to cover their self-insurance claims. As of Dec. 31, 2011, there were 353 individual employers and one group fund in runoff status.

Administer the Self-Insurance Guaranty Fund and the use of financial security to remedy defaults of self-insured employers. The guaranty fund and its special prefund account, which applies to claimants injured before 1993, provide benefits to approximately 255 claimants, with total reserves of $21 million. The division also monitors the payments, balances and administration of 21 default situations being satisfied by private securing entities, such as sureties, corporate trustees or guarantors, involving 268 claims and $27 million in liabilities.

2011 Accomplishments

Processed 730 renewal applications and six new applications for individual self-insurance status, 334 claims status reports of runoff self-insured employers, 37 group annual reports and rate requests and 62 semiannual reports monitoring the status of self-insurance defaults.

Calculated and issued five assessments to finance the operation of special funds under the act.

Implemented changes to computerized operations, documentation and procedures required by amendments to the individual self-insurance regulations. The revised regulations improve clarity, provide more objective standards for qualifying for and maintaining self-insurance status and improve the bureau's ability to monitor and regulate individual self-insurance in Pennsylvania.

Designed work flow changes and participated in general system design activities for the selfinsurance, assessment and common function components of the Workers' Compensation Automation and Integration System, which is scheduled to go online in the fall of 2013.

Legal Division

Thomas Kuzma

Primary Functions

The Department of Labor & Industry's Office of Chief Counsel and the governor's Office of General Counsel coordinate all legal services provided to the bureau. Attorneys representing the bureau and Office of Adjudication, through the Legal Division and its support staff, are responsible for providing legal advice to bureau and adjudication personnel and defending legal challenges to the implementation of the workers' compensation system.

The division is responsible for advising, defending and monitoring the defense of claims filed against the Uninsured Employers Guaranty Fund (UEGF). Created in 2007, the UEGF provides workers' compensation benefits to injured workers whose employers failed to insure or self-insure their workers' compensation liability at the time of the injury. Last year, 255 claims for benefits were filed by workers who alleged injuries suffered in the course and scope of employment with uninsured employers.

The division guides the bureau in administering claims brought against other statutorily-created funds and provides legal counsel in the defense of such claims. For example, division attorneys represent the commonwealth in claims against the Supersedeas Fund as well as the Subsequent Injury Fund and claims under the Occupational Disease Act.

The division is responsible for preparing and coordinating criminal prosecutions of employers who fail to maintain workers' compensation coverage for workers.

The division advises department personnel regarding the impact of statutes and regulations (federal and state) that address workers' compensation concerns. In addition, the division drafts bills, regulations and statements of policy at the behest of the client to either correct deficiencies or make enhancements to the system. The division routinely answers inquiries from the public, both directly and on behalf of clients within the department.

2011 Accomplishments

Crozer Chester Med. Ctr. v. Department of Labor & Indus., No. 59 MAP 2008 (Pa., May 25, 2011) – The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania affirmed the department's position that an insurer's issuance of a Notice of Compensation Payable does not automatically vest a medical provider with access to the department's fee review application process where the insurer denies liability for the provider's medical treatment. Instead, such legal determinations are the exclusive ambit of workers' compensation judges.

Wilson v. Bachman, No. 70 MAP 2010 (Pa. 2011) – On Aug. 25, 2011, the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, in a per curium order, agreed with the department that a workers' compensation claimant's assertion that the department's workers' compenstaion judges were biased against the claimant were without merit and moot. The lawsuit is the culmination of four separate actions instituted by claimant's counsel in various forums against the commonwealth.

GMS Mine Repair & Maint. Inc. v. Workers' Comp. Appeal Bd. (Way), No. 92 CD 2011 (Pa. Cmwlth. Ct., Oct. 7, 2011) – In this supersedeas fund reimbursement appeal, the Commonwealth Court agreed with the department that supersedeas fund reimbursement was not available to reimburse an insurer for payments that were more properly the responsibility of another insurer/employer. The Court reaffirmed the principle that the supersedeas fund "does not assume financial responsibility for injury caused by a third party." GMS Mine Repair, Slip. Op. at 5.

Galardo v. Workers' Comp. Appeal Bd. (Cesario), No. 1619 CD 2010 (Pa. Cmwlth. Ct., April 14, 2011) – In an opinion and order dated April 14, 2011, the Commonwealth Court agreed with the department that both Joseph and Elizabeth Galardo operated a business that employed a worker who was injured and received ongoing benefits from the UEGF. As a result of the court's order, the UEGF may continue to seek repayment from both defendants.

Commonwealth, Dep't of Labor & Indus., Bureau of Workers' Comp. v. Samuel Grossi & Sons Inc., (Docket No. 2010-11692; Bucks County C.C.P.) – The department successfully maintained a civil collection action against defendant Samuel Grossi & Sons Inc., a former self-insurer, of its workers' compensation liability. The defendant had not paid its 2009 workers' compensation administration fund assessment totaling approximately $37,000.

During 2011, the Legal Division assisted in the following successful prosecutions of employers who failed to maintain workers' compensation insurance coverage as required by Section 305 of the Workers' Compensation Act:

Commonwealth v. Mark Adjety/Kevin Carter/ Zullinger Meats Inc. – On Jan. 3, 2011, the individual defendants were admitted into the Franklin County ARD program upon payment of $10,000 in restitution to the UEGF and the injured worker.

Commonwealth v. Kevin Barthan d/b/a Four Star Pizza – On Oct. 31, 2011, Kevin Barthan was sentenced to six years' probation and was ordered to pay $35,782.85 in restitution to the UEGF. The defendant was also ordered to pay fines totaling $600.

Blystone d/b/a Blystone Tree Service – On Feb. 15, 2011, the defendants each pleaded guilty to 18 misdemeanor counts of failing to maintain workers' compensation insurance. They were sentenced to 18 years of probation, during which time they are to pay restitution to the UEGF totaling $282,786.84 as well as the costs of prosecution.

Commonwealth v. Andrew E. Cohen d/b/a Performance Logistics – On June 6, 2011, the individual defendant pleaded guilty to five misdemeanor counts and was sentenced to five years' probation and ordered to pay $310,833.16 in restitution to the UEGF during a five-year period of probation.

Commonwealth v. Roger Davis/Roger Davis Trucking Inc. – On March 9, 2011, the defendant Roger Davis was charged with 18 misdemeanor counts and was ordered to pay the UEGF $34,189.10 in restitution, fined $828 and accepted into the ARD program for six years.

Commonwealth v. George Economou/Dan & George Inc. d/b/a Stacey's Pizza – On June 9, 2011, the defendant George Economou was placed into the ARD program with court-ordered probation for two years and restitution to the injured worker totaling $30,000. Stacey's Pizza pleaded guilty to one felony count of failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance and was sentenced to probation for three years and ordered to pay restitution to the injured worker totaling $30,000.

Commonwealth v. John P. Fitzpatrick/Jack Fitzpatrick d/b/a Scissorwiz – On Aug. 22, 2011, the defendant entered a guilty plea for four misdemeanor counts of failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance and was sentenced to four years' probation and ordered to pay restitution of $16,766.48 to the UEGF.

Commonwealth v. G. Dhaliwal Inc./First Option Direct Mortgage Co./Gurpreet Singh – On March 14, 2011, defendant Gurpreet Singh pleaded guilty to five misdemeanor counts of failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance and was sentenced to a period of five years' probation, ordered to pay restitution to the UEGF in the amount of $149,031.12 plus the costs of prosecution. If he does not pay the restitution within the five-year period, his probation will be extended indefinitely until restitution is made.

Commonwealth v. William N. Goodman, CPA/ Goodman & Company Certified Public Accountants – On Oct. 3, 2011, the defendant pleaded guilty to one misdemeanor count of failing to maintain insurance and was sentenced to probation of one year, and ordered to pay restitution of $7,923.25 at the rate of $738.42 per month.

Commonwealth v. Femi's Pizza Inc./Ali Gorgulugil – On April 25, 2011, the defendant Ali Gorgulugil was sentenced to the ARD program for 12 months and agreed to perform 16 hours of community service and pay $10,012.67 to the UEGF for restitution.

Commonwealth v. John A. Hope/Hope X-Ray Products Inc. – On April 21, 2011, the individual defendant entered into an ARD program for one year, was ordered to pay a $31,162.63 fine and to reimburse the bureau $254 for its costs. The charges against the corporate defendant were dismissed nolle prosequi.

Commonwealth v. Antoinette T. Kester/Front Street Motors Inc. – On March 14, 2011, the defendant Antoinette T. Kester pleaded guilty to six misdemeanor counts of failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance. Kester was ordered to serve six years' probation, pay prosecution costs, $1,200 in fines and $83,463.39 in restitution to the UEGF.

Commonwealth v. Michel E. Lautensack d/b/a MVL Reality Holdings – On Jan. 14, 2011, the defendant pleaded guilty to five misdemeanor counts of failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance and was placed on five years' probation and ordered to pay restitution to the UEGF of $187,185.64.

Commonwealth v. Thomas & Jennifer Lentz d/b/a Lentz Constr. – On March 3, 2011, the defendants were placed into the ARD program for a period of two years and ordered to perform 20 hours of community service. They were also ordered to pay the costs of prosecution as well as restitution to the injured employee in the amount of $40,597.21.

Commonwealth v. Wei Jian Lin aka Wi Jian/King Trading Inc. – On Jan. 21, 2011, Wei Jian Lin was placed into the ARD program and was ordered to serve 12 months probation. The defendant was also ordered to pay the cost of prosecution and a fine of $2,500.

Commonwealth v. Joseph & Pamela A. Locke/ A+ Family Movers Inc. – On July 11, 2011, the defendants each pleaded guilty to three misdemeanor counts of violating Section 305 of the act and were placed on probation for one year. Pamela Locke was placed into the ARD program for a term of two years. The defendants paid restitution of $30,000 upon entering a plea and agreed to pay an additional $4,978.49 over the course of probation.

Commonwealth v. Jerome Lutz d/b/a Top of the Line Roofing – On Oct. 18, 2011, the defendant was admitted into the ARD program for a period of four years on the following conditions: he is to perform 100 hours of community service, maintain workers' compensation insurance on the business; make payment of restitution in the amount of $177,208.57, with a payment of $1,000 to be made by Nov. 7 and monthly payments of at least $500 during the course of the program.

Scope

The information provided in this publication is based on reports of injuries and illnesses that occurred during 2011 to workers employed by businesses covered by the Pennsylvania Workers' Compensation Act. These reports are filed with the Bureau of Workers' Compensation, Department of Labor & Industry. This publication reflects data reported to the bureau as of January 20, 2012.

Pursuant to the provisions of the act, all work injuries and illnesses resulting in death, permanent impairment or loss of time beyond a day or shift of occurrence are required to be reported to the bureau.

Federal employees, maritime workers and railroad workers in interstate commerce are covered under their respective federal workers' compensation programs. Injuries and illnesses of these workers are not included in statistics in this publication.

During 2011, 83,144 lost-time work injury and illness cases were reported to the Bureau of Workers' Compensation. This year's total of 83,144 is 2.8 percent lower than the 85,560 reported in 2010.

Fatalities increased to 110 in 2011 from 111 reported in the previous year.

The work injury and illness rate (the number of losttime work injuries per 1,000 workers)¹ was 14.6 in 2011. In 2010, the rate was 15.3.

About 67.6 percent (56,212) of the 83,144 injury and illness cases occurred in Manufacturing, Educational & Health Services, Professional & Business Services and Trade, Transportation & Utilities. There were 18,773 cases from Trade, Transportation & Utilities for 22.6 percent, 18,473 cases from Educational & Health Services for 22.2 percent and 10,887 cases from Manufacturing for 13.1 percent and 8,079 cases in Professional & Business Services for 9.7 percent. Of the 110 fatal cases in 2011, 70% came from Professional & Business Services, Trade, Transportation & Utilities and Construction and Manufacturing. Almost 21 percent (20.9) of the fatal cases came from Professional & Business Services. Trade, Transportation & Utilities had 10 percent of all fatal cases and Construction had 17.3 percent of all fatal cases. Fatalities in Construction decreased from 25 to 19, while fatalities in Professional & Business Services rose from 11 to 23. Construction had the highest injury and illness rate among the major industry divisions in 2011 at 28.0. The previous year's high rate was 41.3, also in Natural Resources and Mining. Of the 12 major industry divisions, eight showed a decrease in injuries in 2011, while four divisions showed increases.

Agriculture, Forestry, Hunting & Fishing: 654 Injuries

- Most frequent type of injury: sprains and strains: 238 injuries, 36.4 percent

Collection Process of First Reports of Injury

A total of 83,144 First Reports of Injury were received by the bureau for injuries sustained in 2011. Of the reports received, 90 percent were collected via electronic data interchange, or EDI, and 10 percent were collected via the department's website.

Type of Injury or Illness

Sprain, strain injuries (37,478 cases) accounted for 45.1 percent of the total cases reported in 2011. Contusions, crushes, bruises (12,520 cases, 15.1 percent) and cuts, lacerations, punctures (8,551 cases, 10.3 percent) accounted for 25.4 percent (see Figure 1 and Table 3). The greatest number of the sprain, strain cases (14,002 cases, 37.3 percent) affected the trunk area. Most of the cuts, lacerations, punctures (6,072 cases, 71.0 percent) occurred to the upper extremities, and the greatest number of contusions, crushes, bruises (4,143 cases, 33.1 percent) involved the lower extremities (see Table 6).

Part of Body Affected

Injuries to the upper extremities (arms, wrists, hands, fingers, shoulders) accounted for about 32.9 percent (27,364) of the total cases reported in 2011. Back injuries alone (13,185) represented 15.9 percent of the annual total. The trunk (back, chest, abdomen) was injured in 22.70 percent (18,906) of the cases and the lower extremities (hips, legs, knees, ankles, feet, toes) in 24.2 percent (20,106) of the cases (see Figure 2 and Table 4). Most of the trunk area injuries (14,002, 74.0 percent) were sprains and strains. Of the upper extremity injuries, 37.3 percent (10,045) were sprains and strains and 22.1 percent (6,072) were cuts, lacerations and punctures. Sprains and strains accounted for 50.0 percent (10,058) of the lower extremity injuries (see Table 6).

Cause of Injury

Overexertion (lifting, pulling, pushing, etc.) was the leading cause of injury in 2011. There were 24,948 cases of this accident type, which represented 30.0 percent of the total number reported. Being struck by objects (falling, flying, etc.) was the next leading cause of injury with 12,915 cases reported (15.5 percent), followed by falls on same level (10,804, 13.0 percent) (see Figure 3 and Table 5). Most of the overexertion cases (20,767, 55.4 percent) resulted in sprains or strains. The largest number of struck-by accidents (3,864, 30.9 percent) produced contusions, crushing and bruising. More than 60.0 percent (9,142) of the injuries resulting from bodily reactions caused sprains or strains (see Table 7).

Total Cases - 83,144 (100%)

Age of Injured Worker

Workers in the 50-54 age group sustained the greatest number of injuries in 2011. This age group had 10,298 cases that represented 12.4 percent of the total reported. The median age of injured workers in 2011 was 40.7. By industry, the median age of injured workers ranged from 34.1 in Other Services to 45.7 in Manufacturing. The largest number of fatalities (19) was reported in the 50-54 age group (see Figure 4 and Tables 8 and 9).

Total Cases - 83,144 (100%)

Gender of Injured Worker

Of the 83,144 injury and illness cases reported in 2011, 55,906, or 67.2 percent, were male workers.

Of the 110 fatalities reported this year, 16 were female workers. The median age of injured male workers in 2011 was 42.5 and for female workers it was 41.1 (see Table 9).

County Where Injury or Illness Occurred

More than half (38,355) of the 83,144 cases reported in 2011 came from 10 of the commonwealth's 67 counties. The largest number of cases (10,440, 12.6 percent) came from Philadelphia, followed by Allegheny (6,660, 8.0 percent), Montgomery (3,815, 4.6 percent), Lancaster (3,556, 4.3 percent), Bucks (3,387, 4.1 percent), Berks (3,022, 3.6 percent), Delaware (2,996, 3.6 percent), Luzerne (2,993, 3.5 percent), York (2,554, 3.1 percent) and Westmoreland (2,402, 2.9 percent) (see Table 10).

Methodology

Injuries and illnesses are reported to the bureau by electronic data interchange, or EDI, or through the department's website. The narrative description of the accident or exposure is coded for type of injury, part of body affected and cause of injury. These characteristics are classified according to the National Council on Compensation Insurance Coding System as it refers to work-related injuries. The nature of business is classified according to the North American Industry Classification System. In Tables 3, 4 and 5 of this publication, Natural Resources, Mining, Construction and Manufacturing industries are classified at the four-digit level. All other industries are classified at the three-digit level. Tables 1, 8 and 10 are at the division level. Age and gender are obtained directly from the electronic report.

The data tabulated refers to the years in which the injury or illness was reported.

Glossary

North American Industry Classification System (NAICS)

A classification system developed by the Office of Statistical Standards, Executive Office of the President/Office of Management and Budget, for use in classifying firms by type of activity in which they are engaged. Each firm is assigned an industry code for its major activity, which is determined by the product or group of products produced or services rendered.

Cause of Injury

Description of the event that directly resulted in the injury, i.e., struck by or against; fall; caught in, under or between; overexertion; etc.

Type of Injury

Result of the injury or illness, i.e., cut, bruise, fracture, amputation, sprain, etc.

Part of Body Affected

The part of the worker's body directly affected by the injury or illness.

Work Injury and Illness Rate

Injury and illness rates for selected industries are obtained by dividing the number of injuries or illnesses reported during the year by the estimated average preliminary employment for 12 months, times 1,000.

Age and Gender

Obtained directly from the First Report of Injury at time of injury.

Electronic Data Interchange (EDI)

Process of submitting a First Report of Injury electronically.

Web

Process of submitting a First Report of Injury via the Internet.

Primary Function

The Office of Adjudication is responsible for the resolution of disputed workers' compensation matters. There are 89 workers' compensation judges, four judge managers, four administrative officers and 24 field offices that comprise the Office of Adjudication. The workers' compensation judges conduct hearings in disputed matters and render reasoned decisions in a timely manner. Judges also provide alternative dispute resolution services in contested matters.

2011 Accomplishments

Kept the statewide average time to hear and decide workers' compensation cases below 7 months for the third consecutive year. At 6.5 months, it is down from 6.9 months in 2010, 6.8 months in 2009, 7.1 months in 2008, 7.3 months in 2007, 7.8 months in 2006, 8.3 months in 2005, 8.4 months in 2004, 8.7 months in 2003, 9.3 months in 2002.

Reduced the number of pending petitions by 4 percent from 25,893 in 2010 to 24,953 at the end of 2011.

Reduced the number of cases pending for greater than 18 months to 808 or 5 percent of all cases pending, down from 985 in 2010 and 1,118 in 2009.

Ended the year with only 19 total petitions having been closed for more than 90 days prior to decision. This is down from 32 in 2010.

Increased the total number of mediation sessions held in 2011 by 23 percent over the 2010 total. This is up 4 percent from the 19 percent increase in 2010 over 2009.

Continued to expand the availability of alternative dispute resolution services to the parties by increasing the number of judges providing mediation services, increasing the number of judges trained in alternative dispute resolution and improving the delivery of the services through the hearing offices.

Continued to provide new and expanded opportunities for the judges to meet the training requirements of the act, including specially designed courses in ethics and mediation as well as through the 2011 Workers' Compensation Judges' Conference.

Continued to work with the judges and district safety committees to identify and address safety concerns. Implemented a security screening program to screen all individuals attending hearings and mediations in our 24 field offices and all remote hearing sites.

Continued to support employee training and certification in CPR, AED and first aid as well as monitor and update AED equipment as necessary.

Encouraged participation by the judges as speakers at educational events, such as the bureau conference, bar association presentations and other industry gatherings.

Continued to update and refine training materials for new judges to ensure that newly-hired judges received the most comprehensive training possible.

Continued to educate parties on the department's limited-English-proficiency policy and the procedure for requesting language interpretation services at hearings and mediations.

Continued to provide enhanced online services for Pennsylvania workers' compensation system users. WCOA and BWC staff jointly developed new Web forms for the submission of information and continued to develop the WCAIS system in partnership with the Workers' Compensation Appeal Board.

Mission Statement

To address workers' compensation disputes by affording timely and impartial adjudication of workers' compensation matters, and to encourage cooperation among parties to workers' compensation claims by providing alternative dispute resolution services.

Judge Managers

In addition to managing their own caseloads, the judge managers supervise the judges in the Office of Adjudication field offices in their respective regions and the four administrative officers.

Among other duties, judge managers are responsible for balancing workloads among judges; reassigning petitions among judges; assigning judges to handle informal conferences; performing or assigning other judges to perform hearing duties for judges who are absent; training and evaluating new judges; interfacing with stakeholders and evaluating the impact of proposed policy and legislative changes.

Administrative Officers

The four administrative officers manage the Office of Adjudication field office facilities and clerical staff, supporting the judges in their respective districts. They develop enhancements of the adjudication processes in the field and provide innovative technology, necessary equipment and appropriate training for field office staff. The administrative officers are the Office of Adjudication's liaisons with the various divisions of the bureau and the department. They provide support to field offices that helps judges render timely decisions.

The Administrative Officers are: Saundra Parker – Southeastern District Linda Bivens – Eastern District Gloria Gallagher – Central District Diane Dayton-Crawford – Western District

Compromise and Release Agreements

The parties may settle matters in dispute under the act by entering into a Compromise and Release Agreement. The agreement must contain detailed information about the settlement and be presented to the judge on form LIBC-755, Compromise and Release Agreement.

A workers' compensation judge must conduct a hearing and circulate a written decision before the agreement can be effective. The judge may not approve the agreement unless the injured worker understands its full legal significance. During calendar year 2011, workers' compensation judges approved 14,392 Compromise and Release Agreements resulting in payments to injured workers totaling $888,616,721.00. Of the approved Compromise and Release Agreements, 84 percent were "full" settlements resolving both the indemnity and medical aspects of the claim.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Services

The Office of Adjudication is pleased to offer mandatory mediation services, voluntary mediation services and informal conferences under the act. Under this system, the decision is placed in the hands of the parties through a process of selfdetermination to reach an amicable agreement. The judge's role is to facilitate the parties' discussion, provide guidance through the process in identifying each party's interests and to assist the parties in determining creative solutions for possible settlements.

Parties retain control over the outcome. There is no cost when a workers' compensation judge serves as the neutral party. Other potential benefits of this system include:

- Informal sessions
- Open communication between the parties
- Expedition of the claims process

The Office of Adjudication schedules mandatory mediation sessions as required by the act, as well as voluntary mediation sessions upon request of the parties. In 2011, the Office of Adjudication conducted mediations in 9,068 cases resulting in resolution of 4,040 claims.

Governor's Occupational Safety and Health Conference

This two-day conference brings together individuals with special interest in the field of workplace health and safety to share ideas and to meet innovators in safety program design and technology.

Using labor-management cooperation, the conference goal is to create a safer workplace and a healthier workforce, and to increase awareness of safety issues in the workplace, the home and throughout local communities.

Featuring nationally-known speakers, the conference highlights one-on-one interaction during two days of workshops. Many of the workshops are created based on needs expressed by attendees at the previous year's conference. In addition, workshops with the most interest from attendees are repeated in the second session of the day to ensure that all participants have the opportunity to participate in the workshops of their interest.

Governor's Award for Safety Excellence

Providing a safe work environment for Pennsylvania's workers requires complete commitment by employers and employees. This safety initiative provides Pennsylvania employers and employees with the information and technical assistance needed to develop comprehensive safety practices in the workplace. It also recognizes the successful employer-employee joint safety programs, which result in the achievement of safety excellence.

The Governor's Award for Safety Excellence is a competitive award, as evidenced by the high number of nominations received annually. The information gained from these nominations provides valuable best practices that are shared across the state.

Any Pennsylvania employer is eligible for the Governor's Award for Safety Excellence; nominations for the award are voluntary. Information and criteria used to determine finalists include any established joint safety committee; level of labor and management cooperation in prevention efforts; a comprehensive safety plan with a commitment of resources and training; trends experienced in workplace injuries/illnesses over the past five years; number, frequency and severity of workplace injuries/illnesses vs. industry standards; and innovation and strategic development of safety policy and approaches.

Initial review of all nominations is conducted by the Governor's Award for Safety Excellence Review Committee. Semi-finalists are then contacted for an on-site visit conducted by a member(s) of the department's safety team to review the nominee's comprehensive safety program. Site visit reports are written and distributed to the Governor's Award for Safety Excellence Review Committee for the determination of finalists. Recommendations are then forwarded to the secretary of Labor & Industry, who makes the final determination.

Award winners are recognized at the Annual Governor's Occupational Safety and Health Conference in Hershey, Pa., and award presentations are conducted at the award winner's workplace.

Dallastown Area School District York County

The Dallastown Area School District, located in York County, has 5,865 students and 1,309 employees of which 444 are members of the Dallastown Area Education Association. Dallastown Area School District has reduced their workers' compensation costs from $283,012 in the 2008-09 school year to $8,886 in the 2010-11 school year. Monthly evacuation drills are conducted, including drills with doorways blocked to simulate a real-time event, and stay-in-place procedures are communicated to all employees. The school district conducts an annual facility walk through with local EMS, fire department personnel and law enforcement. These drills provide local responders with information relating to building access, power supply shut off sources, security systems and building hazards.

R.A. Glancy & Sons Inc. Allegheny County

R.A. Glancy & Sons Inc. is a family-owned general contracting business with 24 employees located in Gibsonia. Each employee is given a "safety bible" that is updated and distributed annually. In addition, all employees have taken the 10-hour OSHA training course. There have been no injuries since 2008 and the employer's experience modification was reduced from 1.272 to .729. Weekly toolbox talks, safety director walkthroughs and safety meetings with the project manager are conducted. The certified safety committee is a significant contributor to the success of R.A. Glancy & Sons' safety program.

Lancaster Safety Consulting Inc. Allegheny County

Lancaster Safety Consulting, located in Mars, is a familyowned business with 13 employees that provides occupational safety and health management services nationwide. Lancaster Safety Consulting developed a philosophy of making safety its top priority and established a goal to constantly strive to improve their safety program. Since its inception in 2006, the company has experienced zero reportable accidents and illnesses. Nine of Lancaster Safety Consulting's safety programs have been highlighted as OSHA Best Practices for 2011. The company's commitment to safety has earned them the OSHA VPP Star award. Lancaster Safety Consulting's development of unique PPE go-kits to assist with having correct equipment at the job site has contributed to their no-incident safety record. Lancaster Safety Consulting has maintained a certified safety committee since 2007.

L.J. Aviation Westmoreland County

Repeatedly listed by Professional Pilot magazine as one of the best charter services in the United States, L.J. Aviation is regarded as an industry leader by its peers and clients alike. L.J. Aviation, located in Latrobe, with 100 employees, has been owned and operated by the Kilkeary family for 31 years. Quality and safety are integrated throughout the company including the flight department, maintenance, line service and scheduling. Safety is a part of everyday operations. L.J. Aviation has implemented a safety management system to reduce potential risks associated with aviation that could contribute to an incident or accident. L.J. Aviation attributes the success of their safety efforts to their certified safety committee, which has been effective in generating employee participation in the safety risk management process and maintaining injury rates well below industry standards.

Ziamatic Corporation Bucks County

Ziamatic Corporation, located in Yardlev, with 34 employees, was founded in 1958 with the intention of providing men and women in the fire-services industry products that make their profession safer and easier. The company specializes in manufacturing firefighting tools as well as devices used in emergency services. Ziamatic employees have worked more than 205,000 hours without a lost-time injury/illness. In order to maintain investigation skills, the safety committee recently participated in a mock accident investigation with a scripted scenario that simulated injured workers. The certified safety committee is an integral part of the company's safety efforts. The president of the company attends committee meetings on a regular basis. Through the safety committee's efforts, raised hand carts were provided to every employee transporting heavy parts/materials. This eliminated a historic cause factor that resulted in sprain/strain injuries from material handling.

Roll Forming Corporation (Sharon) Mercer County

Roll Forming Corporation (Sharon) is a 100,000 squarefoot facility located in Farrell, with 40 employees. The facility produces custom-rolled forms and welded shapes for, among other things, the furniture, aerospace and transportation industries. The company's experience modification factor was reduced from 1.4 in 2006 to .695 in 2010, which is the lowest for their standard industry code classification in the state of Pennsylvania. As of Dec. 31, 2010, employees worked 470,517 hours, or five years, without a lost-time injury. The certified safety committee members complete monthly safety inspections. Roll Forming Corporation's safety objective is that all employees go home to their families every day - safe and uninjured. All employees are required to wear safety glasses, gloves, hearing protection, long sleeve pants and shirts and steel-toed shoes. Due to the high-heat production process, sports drinks are supplied year round to keep employees hydrated.

Gilbreth Packaging -A Cenveo Company Bucks County

Gilbreth Packaging, located in Croydon, has 67 employees. Gilbreth prints shrink sleeve labels using rotogravure printing. Two safety teams are used. The Safety Action Team deals predominantly with accident investigations and near-miss incidents while the Safety Steering Team performs the certified safety committee functions. Each and every employee works hard to meet the workplace mission statement: "At the end of the day, everyone leaves in the same condition they came in." There have been no lost-time injuries within the past nine years. Safety is truly a way of life for employees and management alike. Every area in the workplace, including the restrooms, has information visible, in one form or another, regarding safety.

On the Web

Check us out on the Web at www.dli.state.pa.us; click on "Workers' Compensation." Use the left navigation bar to find more exciting and innovative workers' compensation features, including:

Health and Safety

Find descriptions about a variety of safety-related programs including: safety committee certification, return-to-work, the Governor's Award for Safety Excellence and drug-free workplaces. You'll also learn about HandS, the health and safety online filing system, and the Pennsylvania Training for Health and Safety, or PATHS, resource. Self-insured employers and insurers can file annual reports online. Employers who want to certify their safety committees or renew existing certification can do so on the Web. Health and Safety Web pages provide instructions on how to use the HandS system and how to establish a user account.

Medical Treatment Information

The Health Care Services Review Division is pleased to offer online tutorials to assist providers with the completion of the Application for Fee Review (LIBC-507) and Medical Report Form (LIBC-9). The division also provides an online courtesy copy of the workers' compensation fee schedule.
