

Workers' Compensation Judges' Procedural Questionnaire

Workers' Compensation Automation and Integration System (WCAIS) is the official repository for all documents related to a Dispute (matter pending) before a Workers' Compensation Judge. All documents, including evidence and briefs, that would have been submitted to a Workers' Compensation Judge by mail or in person prior to WCAIS should now be uploaded into WCAIS. If Social Security numbers appear on any such document, the first five numbers should be redacted before the document is uploaded, unless otherwise specified below. Requests, such as Requests for Continuance and Subpoenas, should also be made through WCAIS.

First Event/Hearings:

1. What is the first Event (i.e., pretrial, hearing, conference call) and what will occur at the first Event with the judge? At the first hearing the moving party will present testimony and exhibits in support of its case. The responding party will have the opportunity to question the claimant and present exhibits.

Exceptions to this rule are:

A vocational expert will ordinarily testify by deposition.

Thirty minutes is provided at the first hearing for the claimant's testimony. The judge's office must be notified of any need for additional hearing time when the petition is assigned to the judge.

2. Are any first hearing filings or documents required at the first Event with the judge? If so, what are they? Yes No

Further explanation:

No first hearing filings or documents are required. Counsel must be prepared to state the client's position on the issues.

- a. Should first hearing filings or documents be uploaded as Exhibits or as Documents?

Exhibits Documents

Further explanation:

A first hearing filing or document (not required) should be uploaded as a document.

- b. Should first hearing filings be uploaded before or after the first hearing?

Before After

Further explanation:

A first hearing filing or document (not required) should be uploaded before the first hearing.

3. What are your procedures for supersedeas hearings?

- a. Will testimony be heard? Yes No

Further explanation:

Testimony of the Claimant and exhibits are expected at a hearing when supersedeas is at issue. Supersedeas is ruled on by written order circulated immediately after the hearing.

- b. Is additional time generally granted to obtain medical evidence? Yes No

Further explanation:

Upon request of a party, I will diary the file to rule on supersedeas on the fourteenth day (or the seventh day on a special supersedeas request).

- c. Under what circumstances will you reconsider a supersedeas order?

Reconsideration of supersedeas may only be had after a hearing as provided in Section 131.41(a) of the Special Rules. 34 Pa. Code §131.41(a).

- d. Do you generally use written orders for denials? Yes No

Further explanation:

- g. Do you have different procedures for special supersedeas hearings? If so, please describe them? Yes No

Further explanation:

4. Do you use a one-day/one-hearing format or serial hearings? Please describe the structure of your hearings. Please indicate if you are willing to change your hearing format upon request of all parties.

Hearings are serial. The hearing format may be changed upon the request of all parties.

5. Are you willing to allow counsel to participate in hearings by telephone? Yes No

Further explanation:

Counsel must request and be granted permission to participate in hearings by telephone. Counsel cannot participate by telephone in State College due to lack of facilities.

6. What procedure do you follow if a party fails to appear at an Event?

If a moving party fails to appear at a hearing without excuse, the responding party may move for dismissal. The motion will ordinarily be granted. If a responding party fails to appear at a hearing without excuse, the moving party may offer evidence calculated to meet the moving party's burden. The moving party may rest and move to close the record. The motion will ordinarily be granted. If the moving party cannot rest, a final hearing will be scheduled to assure the responding party has an opportunity to respond to interpresented evidence.

7. Do you have any special procedures for psychological injury cases? Yes No

Further explanation:

Witnesses/Exhibits:

8. What are your rules regarding the taking of testimony?

a. Do you prefer the testimony be taken at a hearing or by deposition?

Hearing Deposition

b. If counsel wishes to bring a witness to a hearing, do you require prior notice? If so, how much notice do you require? Yes No

Further explanation:

A first hearing is scheduled for the Claimant's testimony. The scheduling order at the conclusion of the first hearing will provide for the presentation of additional lay witness testimony. The order will provide the time frame for notice of additional lay witnesses.

9. Under what circumstances will you permit a party or witness (including an expert witness) to testify by deposition or by phone, rather than appear at the hearing?

A witness including an expert witness may testify by deposition or by phone upon agreement of all parties. Otherwise this request will be addressed when a scheduling order is made.

10. What is your procedure regarding the order of testimony with respect to submission of medical evidence, particularly when cross petitions are filed?

The parties should come to the first hearing planning to take the testimony of the claimant and should be prepared to discuss the order of the evidence. A scheduling order will be entered.
